

A Disappearing Non-Greasy Skin Cream

Harmony Skin Cream is a dainty toilet requisite for making the flesh clean, clear, firm, fresh and healthy.

Harmony Skin Cream does not stain. It is absorbed by the skin readily.

Put up in beautiful opal jars, tied with red ribbon.

Stoke & Feicht Drug Company

A Little of Everything.

Primary election one week from Saturday, June 5.

The borough auditors will meet Monday, June 7, to audit the school account.

"Dingo," J. W. Gillespie's good natured pet dog, died last Thursday. The dog was poisoned.

Mrs. Catherine Miller sold her property in Prescottville and has moved to Youngstown, Ohio.

The district convention of the Improved Order of Red Men will be held in East Brady in 1910.

The Utopia Society will hold a social at the home of Mr. and Mrs. V. R. Pratt on Grant street Friday evening.

"Old Hick'ry Farm" at the opera house to-night and to-morrow night. Tickets on sale at Stoke & Feicht Drug Co. store.

Hon. S. B. Elliott, of this place, lectured on "Forestry" at the State Normal school in Clarion on Monday evening of this week.

Committee No. 1 of the Ladies' Work Society of the Presbyterian church will hold a market at the Keystone Hardware on Saturday, May 29th.

Not many days ago a couple was married at the county seat and the woman has a husband living from whom she has not been divorced.

George Schrecongost, of DuBois, who was tried in the Clearfield county court last week for killing his wife in DuBois on December 22nd, 1908, was found guilty of murder in the second degree.

Rev. S. Wallace Mitchell, of the local Baptist church, left the first of the week for New York state, where he will be engaged for a couple of weeks in evangelistic meetings.—Sykesville Post Dispatch.

G. Meade Gibson, a representative of the Missouri, Kansas and Texas Railway, lectured in Centennial hall last evening on "Texas." Mr. Gibson is a good talker and is familiar with his subject.

Walter D. Williams, of Buffalo, N. Y., formerly of this place, brother of Mayor Jarvis D. Williams, has embarked in the shoe business in Buffalo, and is now proprietor of a large shoe store in that city.

The Reynoldsville High School and Rathmel base ball teams played a game on the Reynoldsville grounds on Wednesday afternoon of last week and the visitors defeated the high school boys. Score 13-11.

P. C. Miller, the Texas real estate agent who has been located at Reynoldsville the past winter, returned this week from a business trip to the southwest and brought with him several interesting specimens of Texas soil.

A special train on board of which was the fourth vice-president and other officials of the Pennsylvania railroad went through Reynoldsville last Saturday afternoon on its way over the Low Grade from Driftwood to Red Bank.

Mrs. D. J. Burgoon, of Buffalo, N. Y., formerly of this place, was called to Ridgway, Pa., by the serious illness and death of her mother, Mrs. Joanna Maloney. Mrs. Maloney died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Daniel Fitzgerald. She was eighty-three years old.

PROGRAM FOR MEMORIAL DAY IN REYNOLDSVILLE

Exercises In The Reynoldsville Cemetery Under Direction of the G. A. R.

The Grand Army Post, Sons of Veterans and Woman's Relief Corps, of Reynoldsville have arranged the following program for the observance of Memorial Day, Monday, May 31st:

Procession will form on Main street at 9.00 a. m., as follows: Marshall at head, Sunday schools and different orders. Line of march: Up Main street to Presbyterian church, down Seventh street to Jackson street, up Jackson to Bradford street, out Bradford to cemetery.

At entrance to cemetery column will halt and open ranks for John C. Conser Post, Sons of Veterans and Woman's Relief Corps and orders to march through and receive flowers from the Sunday school scholars.

The services at the cemetery will be as follows: Song by male quartette. Commander's address. Prayer by Chaplain. Reading of Lincoln's Gettysburg speech.

Ritual service by members of the J. C. Conser Post and Sons of Veterans. Firing salute by Sons of Veterans. Address by Dr. A. J. Meek. Benediction.

Comrades will then deposit flowers on graves of deceased comrades. JOSEPH SHAFER, Marshal. DR. B. E. HOOVER, Asst. Marshal. MRS. L. D. KLEINHANS, Sec.

Mrs. Caroline Armor and daughter, Miss Nelle, were called to DuBois Monday on account of the serious illness of the former's mother, who is eighty years old.

W. G. Laughrey, of Beechtree, aged 71 years, died Monday afternoon at his home. His death was the result of a stroke of paralysis, with which he was stricken about three months ago.

The Brockwayville Do-No-Ti Tribe of Improved Order of Red Men carried off two prizes at the district convention held in Kittanning last week, going longest distance, $15.00 in cash for band $12.50 in cash. The Pocahontas Council of Brockwayville got $10.00 in cash for going longest distance.

W. M. H. Hollis, president of the Central Land and Mining Co., and J. Hunter Ewing, a director of the same company, both of Philadelphia, were in Reynoldsville on Thursday of last week looking over the C. L. & M. Co. lands in this section. This company owns a large acreage in this county.

Dr. W. H. Thompson, of Pittsburgh, state superintendent of the Children's Home Society of Pennsylvania, was the guest of Rev. John F. Black at the M. E. parsonage over Sunday and preached in the M. E. church Sunday evening. Doctor preached an excellent sermon, but it was a little lengthy for some of the congregation—one hour and ten minutes.

John H. Kaucher, president of the First National bank of this place, recently elected Eminent Commander of Bethany Commandery, No. 83, Knights Templar, of DuBois, is in Philadelphia this week attending the fifty-sixth annual convocation of the Grand Commandery Knights Templar as a representative from Bethany Commandery.

Rev. A. D. McKay, pastor of the Presbyterian church, was called to Mt. Pleasant, Ohio, Friday on account of the very critical condition of his father-in-law, Rev. D. L. Dickey, and Rev. T. R. Johnson, of Edgington, Ill., who is visiting his sister, Mrs. W. L. Johnston, West Reynoldsville, preached in the Presbyterian church Sunday morning and evening.

George H. Rea and family left here yesterday on the 1.28 p. m. train for Las Cruces, Mexico, their new home. Miss Maud Meek, of this place, who has been visiting in Washington Co., Pa., and Pittsburgh a couple of weeks, met Mr. and Mrs. Rea in Pittsburgh last evening and accompanied them to Las Cruces. Miss Meek expects to visit in Texas and California before returning home.

Ruth and Helen Milliren, young daughters of Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Milliren, whose birthday anniversaries come close together, were given a birthday party from 3.00 to 5.00 p. m., on Thursday, May 20. There were thirty-five little tots present. A dainty luncheon was served. Misses Lillian Harries, Fannie Alexander and Malissa Sensor assisted Mrs. Milliren in serving the luncheon.

We received a postal card from Rev. A. D. McKay yesterday from Mt. Pleasant, Ohio, requesting us to announce that on account of the union services in the M. E. church Sunday morning there will be no preaching in the Presbyterian church Sunday morning. Rev. McKay expects to return home the latter part of this week and will fill his pulpit Sunday evening. Rev. Dickey, Mrs. McKay's father, is still living but is unconscious part of the time.

Boy's Arm Broken.

Dean, eleven year old son of Charles M. Milliren, clothing merchant, fell Wednesday evening and broke his right arm just below the elbow.

Married in Brookville.

William Lee, of Homer City, Pa., and Minerva Shaw, known in Reynoldsville as Mrs. Shingledecker, were married by 'Squire Baur in Brookville on the afternoon of May 15, 1909.

House Burned.

Last Thursday afternoon a house owned by Mrs. Charles Grubbs, on "Poverty Flat," was almost totally destroyed by fire. The fire company responded promptly. The fire originated from a defective flue. No insurance.

Glass Order from Brazil.

On 19th inst. the Star Glass Company of Reynoldsville received the first order for glass to be made by the new glass making machine just installed in the plant at this place. The order came from Brazil and cash accompanied the order.

Bodies Exhumed.

Mrs. Frank McGinness, of Philadelphia, was in town last week and had the bodies of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Aaron Welsh, and her brother, Silas Welsh, removed from the Prospect cemetery to the Reynoldsville cemetery.

Some Responded.

We made a request last week that all those who know themselves to be in arrears on their subscription for THE STAR to kindly make prompt payment. Some have called and settled, but a number of others have not responded yet. Please don't overlook this, to us, important request.

Big Gasser.

One of the largest gas wells ever struck in this section was drilled in on the Buzzard farm in Eldred township, under lease to the Brookville Oil and Gas Co., on Friday of last week. Those competent to judge estimate that the well is good for about two and one half million feet a day. The striking of such a big gasser has caused considerable excitement among the oil and gas men who have interests in that locality.—Brookville Democrat.

Mission in Catholic Church.

There will be a mission in the St. Mary's Catholic church at this place eight days, beginning next Sunday, May 30, and continuing until the following Sunday. Two missionaries from Saratoga, N. Y., will be here to conduct the mission. There will be services every day at 5.00 a. m., 9.00 a. m. and in afternoon and evening. Instructions will be given at each service. This will be the third mission ever held in the Catholic church at this place.

Will Observe Memorial Day.

The Princess Helena Society, an Italian organization of Reynoldsville, is arranging to observe Memorial Day, Monday, May 31st. The members will meet at their lodge room and march to the Catholic church at 9.00 a. m., and after mass will file in line again and march to the Catholic cemetery, where speeches will be made. This society has hired the Sykesville cornet band, which will head the procession from hall to church and from the church to cemetery.

Accepted Call.

Rev. Charles Rudy, of Lancaster, Pa., who graduated in the Lutheran seminary at Philadelphia two weeks ago, has accepted a call to become pastor of the Trinity Lutheran church in Reynoldsville. June, 1909, will be a month in Rev. Rudy's life history that he will never forget. June 10th he will be married, June 13th he will be ordained as a minister and June 27th he will preach his first sermon in the Trinity Lutheran church in Reynoldsville, his first charge as a regularly ordained minister.

Extra Mail to Brookville.

Up until last Monday there were only two mails from Reynoldsville to Brookville each day, 8.08 a. m. and 1.28 p. m., but by persistent efforts of Postmaster Burns Uncle Sam has given us another mail to Brookville, which leaves here on the 4.20 p. m. train. Heretofore people receiving mail from the county seat that required prompt answer had to wait until the next morning to get a letter off for Brookville. Under the new service a person can receive a letter on the 12.52 p. m. train and get an answer out at 4.20 p. m. of same day. This is a closed pouch from Reynoldsville to Brookville, but it gives the service all the same. This extra mail pouch to Brookville was inaugurated Monday afternoon of this week.

Separate Skirts.

Very newest weaves; well made in latest styles $3.75 to $12.00. Gillespies.

A carload of basement goods received this week. Bing-Stoke Co.

We sell you the four that is the broad maker, both quality and quantity. Robinson & Mundorff.

Don't fail to attend our Thursday after supper sale. Bing-Stoke Co.

Bargains in each department Thursday evening at Bing-Stoke Co.

Death of Mrs. M. J. Sprankle.

Mrs. Martha Jane Sprankle, widow of William Sprankle, died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. A. E. Douthit, in Winslow township, some time Wednesday night. Mrs. Sprankle was stricken with paralysis about one year ago and never enjoyed good health after that. She had been confined to bed three weeks with valvular heart trouble and some other afflictions of the body and some member of the family had been sitting up at night with her, but Wednesday evening she said that she was feeling better and that it was not necessary for anyone to stay up that night. They all retired and in the morning Mrs. Sprankle was found dead in bed, having died during the night. Her maiden name was Martha Jane Saltgiver. She was born at Walston, Jefferson county, Pa., April 23rd, 1845, and was 64 years old last month. She was united in marriage to William Sprankle and unto them twelve children were born, four of whom preceded the mother into the Eternal Land. The following sons and daughters survive the parents: Mrs. Mary Dickey, of Wislaw, Jacob Sprankle, of Big Run, Mrs. Matlua Helmbeckie, of Brookville, Mrs. A. E. Douthit, W. C. and James Sprankle, of Winslow township, Garfield Sprankle, of Reynoldsville, and Albert Sprankle, of Wislaw.

Deceased is also survived by her mother, Mrs. Mary Saltgiver, who is 85 years old, five sisters, three brothers, forty-four grandchildren and two great-grandchildren.

Funeral services were held in the Bollinger M. E. church Friday afternoon, conducted by Rev. H. G. Teagarden, Ph. D., and interment was made in the cemetery at North church.

Went to Soldiers' Home.

Michael Cannon, who worked on the section on the Low Grade Division with Dennis O'Brien a few years, went to Erie, Pa., yesterday to enter the Sailors' and Soldiers' Home at that place. Mr. Cannon, who is now 85 years old, was an old soldier, a member of Company D, 2nd Battalion, 18th Regiment U. S. Infantry. Dennis O'Brien accompanied Mr. Cannon to Erie to see him comfortably located in the Home.

Presented Large Silk Flag.

Monday evening the Woman's Relief Corps presented the John C. Conser Post with a large silk flag. Mrs. Minerva Strauss made the presentation speech, which was responded to by Comrades J. W. rous and J. E. McPherson. After the presentation, etc., the ladies served lunch for the members of the Post and Sons of Veterans.

Methodist Church.

The services for next Sunday: 11.00 a. m., union Memorial service; theme, "Memorial Day." 7.30 p. m., sermon on a theme which will be interesting to young and old.

Shoes.

Men's $3.50 shoes $2.69; men's $4.00 shoes $3.19. Patent leather, vicid kid, gun metal and box calf. Gillespies.

Blit-Well oxfords for men—tan, gun metal and patents for $3.00. Adam's.

Come out Thursday evening and see the bargains we have to offer. Bing-Stoke Co.

W. B. corsets always sold at $1.00, now 69c. $1.50 grades at only $1.19. Gillespies.

WANT COLUMN.

Rate—One cent per word for each and every insertion.

FOR RENT OR SALE—One five-room house; city water and gas; on Broad street, West Reynoldsville, Pa. Chas. Spencer.

Lost—Gold cuff link. Finder please leave at STAR office.

FOR SALE—Fresh cow. John H. Deemer, R. F. D. 4, Reynoldsville.

FOR SALE—Refrigerator and kitchen cabinet. Inquire at STAR office.

WANTED—An experienced lady clerk. Inquire at THE STAR office.

FOR SALE—Inlaid linoleum; amount 9 x 42 feet. Sold at a bargain. Reynoldsville Candy Works.

FOR SALE—Tomato, cabbage, cauliflower and celery plants, all transplanted. West Reynoldsville Greenhouse.

FOR RENT—Six room house on Grant street. Inquire at STAR office.

FOR RENT—Eight room house, First avenue, West Reynoldsville. Inquire of M. E. Weed, Keystone Hardware store.

FOR SALE—Buggy horse; weight 960 pounds. Inquire at THE STAR office.

FOR RENT—Seven room house with bath, on Broadway, West Reynoldsville; stable and two lots. $10 per month. Address P. Koehler, Reynoldsville, Pa.

FOR SALE—Good second-hand baby carriage; will be sold cheap. J. R. Hillis & Co.

FOR SALE—Meat market fixtures; will be sold cheap. Inquire at STAR office.

FOR RENT—One seven room house including bath room on Grant street; also six room house on Mable street. M. A. Fisher.

THE PEOPLE WHO ARE PASSING TO AND FRO.

Irving R. Klock was in Pittsburgh last week.

C. J. Kerr, Esq., was in Clarion county this week.

Miss Frances Sayers was in Brookville yesterday.

Miss Ella Murphy, of Emerickville, is visiting in town.

Mrs. I. Horwitz was in Pittsburgh on business last week.

J. O. Johns, wife and son, Paul, spent Sunday in Brookville.

Mrs. Foster Whitmore, of Lindsey, visited in town this week.

Calvin Dickey spent several days of the past week in Pittsburgh.

Miss Alice Reitz spent Sunday at home of her parents at Ohl.

Dr. J. B. Neale was over in Clearfield county last week trout fishing.

Mrs. F. W. Herpel is visiting her son, Frank Herpel, in Bradford.

Thomas Degnan, of Ridgway, visited his parents in this place last week.

George Mellinger is in Kittanning this week doing some survey work.

Mrs. J. P. Eddy visited in St. Marys and Brockport during the past week.

Miss Nelle I. Stephenson is visiting in Oakmont and Pittsburgh this week.

M. G. Swartz and wife spent Sunday with the latter's parents at Emerickville.

Dr. B. E. Hoover and son, Burton, visited the former's parents at Winslow Sunday.

Mrs. James Armagost visited her uncle, Michael Thomas, at Langville last week.

John T. Tierney, of Scranton, Pa., is the guest of William Copping on Jackson street.

K. C. Schuckers and son, Joseph, spent Sunday with the former's parents at Emerickville.

Mrs. V. R. Pratt, Mrs. C. Mitchell and Miss Cora Mitchell visited in DuBois last Friday.

Mrs. Jacob Booth, of Curwensville, is visiting her daughter, Mrs. A. H. Bowser, in this place.

Miss Sue Reynolds, who has been in Pittsburgh some time, has returned to her home in this place.

Miss Lucie Mitchell, of this place, is now attending the Mitchell Cutting school in New York City.

Miss Jennie Daily, of Penfield, visited her sister, Mrs. G. M. McDonald, in this place the past week.

Mr. and Mrs. George Wildauer, of DuBois, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Tafse and family.

Mrs. C. Mitchell and granddaughter, Cora Mitchell, left here yesterday to visit in Kane and Warren, Pa.

Miss Eleanor Rogers, of DuBois, spent a few days of the past week with Mrs. M. J. Lord in this place.

Mrs. C. J. Keim, of Watsonstown, is visiting her sister and cousin, Misses Merta Boyle and Eleanor Reed.

Mrs. S. M. Barclay, of Butler, and Mrs. John R. Elder, of DuBois, were guests at home of John M. Stephenson last Thursday.

Mrs. J. F. Guthrie went to Pittsburgh Saturday and from there will go to Salem, Ohio, this week to see a sister who is ill.

Mrs. W. P. Organ and son, William, of Punxsutawney, are visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John C. Shober, on Jackson street.

Miss Jessie Barclay, trained nurse, who was nursing in Brookville a couple of months, returned to her home in this place Saturday.

Mrs. H. Earl Swift, of Brookville, is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Barclay, and sister, Mrs. Jarvis D. Williams, in this place.

Walter Strouse and sister, Miss Beulah Strouse, spent several days last week visiting friends and relatives in the Pifer settlement and in Punxsutawney.

Mrs. Amelia Murray, Mrs. Thomas Reynolds, Jr., and W. D. Reynolds were in Punxsutawney last Thursday attending the funeral of Dr. Henry Ernest.

E. C. Reed and wife and James Saucerman, of Clearfield, were guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Yenewine in Reynoldsville a few days the past week.

H. C. Fleming, of Driftwood, visited his sister, Mrs. Robert Z. Parrish, in this place Saturday afternoon and spent Sunday with his parents at Emerickville.

Miss Frances L. Herpel, who had been visiting her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Herpel, for sometime, returned to her home at Bradford, Pa., last week. She was accompanied by her grandmother.

Mrs. Thos. M. Jewell and Mrs. C. N. Lewis attended the M. E. Missionary convention in Summerville last week as delegates from the Reynolds-ville Society. The next district convention will be held in Clarion.

William Gibson has gone to Oklahoma City, Oklahoma. He may locate in that section of the country.

Mrs. Adda Van Scholek, of Pittsburgh, will come to Reynoldsville tomorrow to visit her brother, E. D. Seeley, and other relatives.

George Hartman, who moved to Pittsburgh a couple of months ago and was in a hospital several weeks, is in town this week. He has tuberculosis of the bladder.

Mrs. J. S. Hall and daughter, Ruth, of Plattsburgh, Neb., are visiting the former's mother, Mrs. C. S. Armagost, and other relatives in Reynoldsville. This is Mrs. Hall's first visit home in sixteen years. She will remain here about six weeks.

W. D. Fuller attended the district convention of the I. O. of R. M. in Kittanning last week as a delegate from Mazomania Tribe No. 341, of Reynoldsville. Seven other members of Mazomania Tribe attended the convention, among whom was M. V. Fuller, Charles H. Young, Alex. Watson.

Mr. and Mrs. M. J. Farrell, who went to Philadelphia two weeks ago to attend the State Convention of the Royal Arcanum, mention of which was made in THE STAR at that time, went from Philadelphia to Atlantic City, N. J., and to Elkins, W. Va., to visit their son, H. R. Farrell. They returned home the latter part of last week.

Next Sunday a new schedule goes into effect on the Low Grade Division of the P. R. R. There are several changes in the time of passenger trains at Reynoldsville. Only one train arrives any earlier, but three or four trains arrive later on the new schedule. Following is time of trains on the new schedule:

Eastbound—6.35 a. m., 11.42 a. m., 12.52 p. m., 6.22 p. m. (14 minutes later than old schedule), 9.40 p. m.

Westbound—6.32 a. m. (3 minutes earlier than on old schedule), 8.23 a. m. (15 minutes later than on old schedule), 1.28 p. m., 4.38 p. m. (13 minutes later than old schedule), 8.03 p. m. (5 minutes later than old schedule).

Sunday trains arrive at same time as on old schedule excepting the early morning westbound train arrives at 6.32 instead of 6.35 and the westbound afternoon train arrives at 4.38 instead of 4.20.

Union Memorial Services.

Next Sunday is Memorial Sunday and union services will be held in the M. E. church at 11.00 a. m. Rev. John F. Black, pastor of the church, will preach the sermon. On account of this service there will be no preaching in the Baptist and Presbyterian churches Sunday morning, but the regular services will be held in those churches in the evening.

Ladies' Waists.

All new spring styles. Prices cut 25 per cent. Gillespies.

Take Notice.

The Central Land and Mining Company has decided to place on the market for sale all of its holdings in Jefferson county. As an inducement to purchasers, a material reduction in price will be quoted for a short time from what the land was formerly listed. The land will be sold in amounts and upon terms to suit the convenience of purchasers. For further information call on or address J. J. SUTTER, Superintendent, Reynoldsville, Pa.

Oxfords.

Ladies' $3.50 oxfords in black, tan and ox blood at $2.69. Gillespies.

Letter List.

List of unclaimed letters remaining in post office at Reynoldsville, Pa., for week ending May 22, 1909.

D. P. Conrad, Westley Gillespie, Joseph Snyder, John N. Smith, Sylvester Woomey.

Say advertised and give date of list when calling for above.

E. C. BURNS, P. M.

Elk Skin.

Celebrated elkskin shoes for men. No wear out to them; always sold for $3.00. Now selling at $2.39. Gillespies.

Special sale in each department Thursday evening. Bing-Stoke Co.

Mi-o-na is the greatest of all stomach tonics. Take it two weeks and you will feel better, healthier, happier. Your skin will be clearer, your eyes brighter. Stoke & Feicht Drug Co. guarantees it to cure indigestion. 50 cents.

See the ladies and gents new neckwear at Bing-Stoke Co.

All kinds of feed for young and old chickens, the kind that makes the hens lay and the chicks grow. Robinson & Mundorff.

Our sale goes on Thursday evening. Bing-Stoke Co.